City.

Dear Sir:—

While reading your Sunday edition, my attention was taken up by the "ad" of Prof.

H. N. D. Parker.

Sometime ago, I was taken with a nervous ailment, which compelled me to give up my daily duties.

After trying and following the advice of some of the best physicians in the city. Prof. Parker was recommended to me, and after a course of his treatments, I was restored to good health and the best of physical condition, and have not been troubled since.

I heartily recommend Prof. Parker's treatment to any one having a nervous trouble of any kind.

Respectfully.
